Description

This two story, three bay frame L-shaped aluminum sided house has High Victorian Gothic styling with a central steeply pitched cross gable. The main entrance is located in the center bay of the front elevation. Windows have single pane sash which are replacements, and a porch extends across the entire front, but the west end porch bay has been filled in. One original turned porch post remains. The roof is covered with standing seam sheet metal and corbeled chimneys are located inside the end walls. On the 1877 Atlas, this property is occupied by a house owned by C.M. Keedy.
