Description

At 40 South Main Street is a two story, three bay frame house with a steeply pitched cross gable dating from about 1890. The building is sheathed with vinyl siding, and has single pane sash windows. The entrance is located in the center bay. A porch extends across the entire front.

The 1877 Atlas map shows this property to have belonged to the lot immediately south, then owned by William F. Carr. No house is shown on the site in 1877.
