DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The Benevola United Methodist Church is located on the south side of Benevola Church Road at Benevola, northwest of Boonsboro in Washington County, Maryland. It is situated on high ground with main entrances in its north and east elevation.

The church is a cross form building with stone foundations and stuccoed walls. The main structure is set on a north-south axis with opposing gables extending out from the east and west elevations. At the northeast corner of the building is a square bell tower with a crenelated top. Major windows are arched and filled with stained glass. The main entrance has a large semi-circular fan light above the door.

The cornerstone is inscribed : Benevola United Brethren in Christ Church, 1917, 1886, 1858. It is possible that parts of this structure may incorporate the original mid 19th century church building.

Adjoining the building is the cemetery which has markers dating from the 19th and 20th centuries.
