DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This house is built into a hillside along Benevola Church Road, north of Boonsboro in Washington County, Maryland. It is situated on the south side of the road and faces north. The dwelling is a one and a half story, three bay house with white washed stone foundations that are a full story in height at the front elevation. Above the foundations the house is sheathed with German siding which may conceal log or timber frame construction.

Windows have narrow frames with six over six pane sashes. Doors are located in the central bays of the front elevation at the ground and main story levels. The doors are treated simply and do not have transoms. A porch extends along the entire front elevation. It is supported by a double tier of square posts and its upper level, at the main story is enclosed by a plain balustrade. There is no exterior access to the upper part of the porch.

The roof is covered with sheet metal and a brick chimney is located inside the west end wall.

The house is in excellent condition and stands on a parcel of land containing 58.73 acres
