DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The Sherrick Farm on the Antietam National Battlefield site is already listed on the National Register of Historic Places. The Sherrick House is a two story five bay brick structure displaying Flemish bond at the front elevation. It would appear to date from the second quarter of the 19th century and remains in almost original condition at both the interior and exterior. In several rooms original painted wall surfaces can be seen. The house combines both gable and hipped roof structures.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The Sherrick Farm is most well known for its association with the Civil War Battle of Antietam which occurred on September 17, 1862. It was near the fighting in the afternoon of that day which was concentrated in the area of Burnside's Bridge.

The house is also significant as a refined and nearly unaltered example of regional mid 19th century architecture.
