DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This farm complex is improved with a two story, four bay brick house displaying all stretcher bond at the front elevation and common bond at the other walls. Windows have six over six pane double hung sashes. Two entrances are located side by side in the central bays of the front elevation. In addition to the house the complex has a complete set of outbuildings including a stone smoke house with a wood shingle roof, a two part stone spring house a small frame shop, presumably for a blacksmith and a frame bank barn. The spring on the farm feeds a large pond which appears to be natural.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This mid 19th century farm group is particularly notable because it includes a complete set of outbuildings. The house with its two front doors reflects Germanic building traditions. Many dwellings with two front doors centered in the front elevation appear in areas where Pennsylvania German influence is strong.
