DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This two and a half story three bay house is of log construction sheathed with composition siding. A full story of the stone foundations are exposed above the ground level. Windows have six over six pane sashes. According to an occupant of the house, it was built by a colored man during the late 19th century.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This building is a typical vernacular structure of Washington County. Log houses following this form are frequently seen in the small communities and in the more mountainous areas of the County. If the house can be documented as having been built by a colored family, it is significant to local Black History.
