

SITE NUMBER: WA-II-552

ADDRESS: 108 South Church Street, Sharpsburg, MD

OWNER/LOT NUMBER/ACCESS: Samuel L. Guessford, 487/353, private

BUILDING DATE: 1910s-1920s

108 South Church Street is an east-facing, symmetrical, one-and-a-half-story, two-bay, stuccoed, L-shaped, freestanding, residential structure. Its principal focus is the wide, four-bay shed dormer that extends across much of the side-gable roof. Other features of the front facade include a wide picture window flanked by narrower double-hung windows, a flat-roof open porch that extends across the facade and that is supported by modern iron railing, and permastone sheathing. Aside from the large picture window, other fenestration consists of double-hung, six-over-six sash.

Based on its bungalow styling, the building appears to date from the first quarter of the 20th century. It is noted on the 1922 Sanborn without an address, but as part of an extensive property that extended from the alley to the north to North Antietam Street. It should be noted, however, that a building is indicated on this spot on the 1877 map of the town. At that time, the entire property was owned by J. Marker.

The building is within the Western Maryland Geographic Organization, the Development Period of Industrial/Urban Dominance, and falls within the Historic Period Theme of Architecture, Landscape Architecture and Community Planning.
