OWNER/LOT NUMBER/ACCESS: Russell E. Weaver, 644/285, private

BUILDING DATE: mid-late 19th century

234 West Main Street is a north-facing, horizontally massed, symmetrical, four-bay, two-and-a-half-story, frame, freestanding, residential structure on a stone foundation. The building is set directly at the public-right-of-way and is covered with manufactured siding. The artificial roll, side-gable roof has one rebuilt exterior endwall brick chimney, open and overhanging eaves, and gable returns. The center-bay entrance consists of a modern door. The entrance is protected by a hipped-roof, porch that extends the length of the building. It is supported by squared posts connected by a slat railing. Fenestration is composed of modern, single, rectangular, wooden sash, double-hung, six-over-six windows with shutters. There is a large two-story wing to the rear.

A building of the same configuration is noted on the 1877 map of the town as being owned by George Snyder. The structure appears on the 1922 Sanborn as 112 West Main Street.

The building is within the Western Maryland Geographic Organization, the Development Period of Agricultural-Industrial Transition, and falls within the Historic Period Theme of Architecture, Landscape Architecture, and Community Planning.
