SITE NUMBER: WA-II-771
ADDRESS: 9 North Main Street, Boonsboro, MD
OWNER/LOT NUMBER/ACCESS: Fitz' Place Antique Shop
BUILDING DATE: early 19th century, c. 1828

9 North Main Street is a west-facing, vertically massed, two-and-a-half-story, three-bay, brick, attached, commercial structure. The building is set directly at the public-right-of-way and rests on a stone foundation. The brick is set on flemish bond and is painted white. The tin, side-gable roof has bridged chimneys at either end. What appears to be an early 20th-century storefront has been applied to the southern two bays. An entrance (to the upper floors) is located in the north bay. Windows on the second floor are two-over-two double-hung. The upper sash windows are set in slightly rounded frames. Although the entrance to the upper stories has been altered with the addition of the colonial revival surround, a two-light transom is still visible below and behind the pediment.

According to deed research by Doug Bast, this building rests on original lot 33 that was first purchased by Peter Conn in 1792 for five pounds (Liber H, Folio 51). A walking tour leaflet of Boonsboro indicates that this building was erected about 1828 as a store. The second floor had a large hall that served as the Masonic Lodge in 1847.

A building of the similar configuration as the extant structure is noted on the 1877 map of the town. The 1897 and 1904 Sanborns indicate that this building was the Boone Hotel and was numbered 337 Main Street. The first floor held an office, bar, and dining room, as well as two frame, one-story rear additions. There are several outbuildings towards the rear of the lot on both maps.

According to the 1910 Sanborn, the upper story was used as a dwelling and the lower floor as a store at that time. All the outbuildings and rear additions noted on the earlier maps are extant on the 1910 map. By 1924, however, according to the Sanborn map of that date, the frame additions had been demolished and an additional brick addition was constructed onto what had been the former hotel's dining room. The rear outbuildings are replaced by a single automobile garage, which is not indicated on the 1940 Sanborn.

The building is within the Western Maryland Geographic Organization, the probable Development Period of Agricultural-Industrial Transition, and falls within the Historic Period Themes of Economic; and Architecture, Landscape Architecture, and Community Planning.
