

SITE NUMBER: WA-II-896
ADDRESS: 28 Potomac Street, Boonsboro, MD
OWNER/LOT NUMBER/ACCESS: private
BUILDING DATE: mid 19th century, pre-1877

28 Potomac Street is a north-facing, horizontally massed, two-story, four-bay, frame, freestanding, residential structure. The building, which is set directly at the public-right-of-way, rests on a stone foundation and lacks any ornamentation. It has a side-gable, tin roof. The door, which is located in the west bay, is glazed and paneled and topped by a four-light transom. Fenestration includes double-hung, six-over-six windows. The building has a rear, one-story brick addition and a large barn at the back of its lot.

This building is first noted on the 1877 map of Boonsboro. The 1910-1940 Sanborns note it as 84 Potomac Street. Both the one-story brick addition and the large barn are also shown.

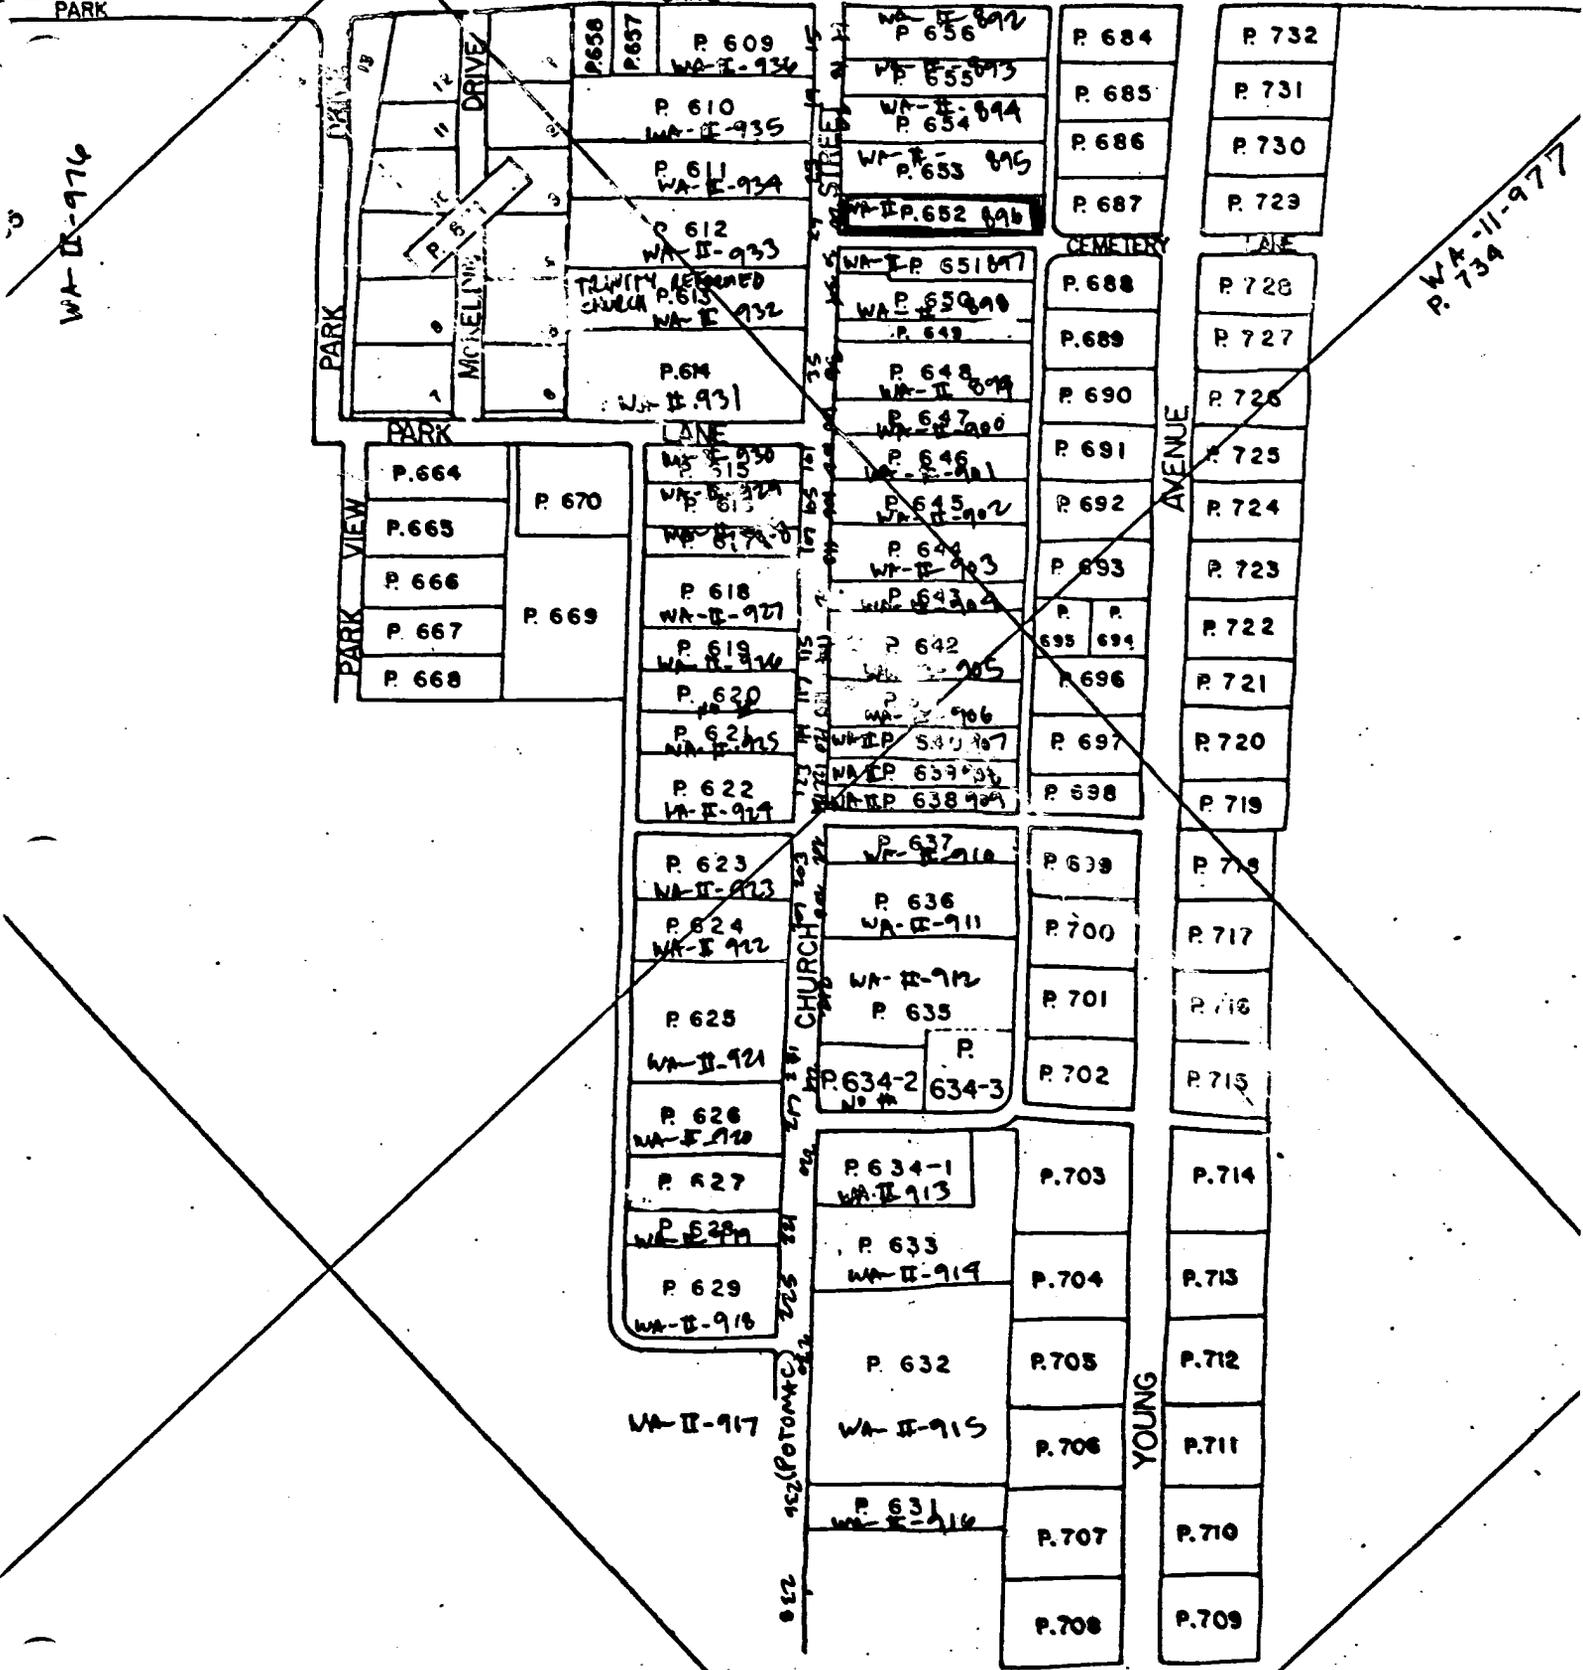

The building is within the Western Maryland Geographic Organization, the probable Development Period of Agricultural-Industrial Transition, and falls within the Historic Period Theme of Architecture, Landscape Architecture, and Community Planning.
