DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This one and a half story, three bay sided vacant house would appear to be of log construction. Extending across the front elevation is a porch, beneath which is a coating of stucco. First story windows had six over six pane sashes. The chimney, roof and most exterior surfaces would appear to date from the late 19th or early 20th century.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This vernacular log building is believed by members of the Hull family to have been built prior to 1803 by or for Peter Hull. Although the exterior of the house does not appear to be so old, the sub structure which was not examined could date from the Ca. 1800 period.
