

SITE NUMBER: WA-V-373

ADDRESS: 18 North Mill Street, Clear Spring, MD

OWNER/LOT NUMBER/ACCESS: Fred W. Robinson, 709/821, private

BUILDING DATE: 1877-1922

18 North Mill Street is an east-facing, horizontally massed, one-and-a-half-story, frame, freestanding, residential structure. The salt-box style house is set back from the public-right-of-way, has a concrete foundation, and is covered in manufactured siding. The front-gable roof is sheathed with artificial roll and has one chimney. A porch once wrapped around the facade and south elevations, but has been mostly enclosed. The door is located in the north bay. Windows are double-hung, one-over-one sash.

The 1877 map of Clear Spring indicates that a building owned by J. Sosey was located on this lot. However, that building is depicted directly at the street and may not be the extant structure. The existing building is shown on the 1922 Sanborn where it is numbered 114 Mill.

The building is within the Western Maryland Geographic Organization, the probable Development Period of Industrial/Urban Dominance, and falls within the Historic Period Theme of Architecture, Landscape Architecture, and Community Planning.
