This house located on the south side of West Potomac Street is a two story, two bay gable front frame structure dating from the early 20th century. Its walls are covered with aluminum siding. Windows have three over one pane sashes and are grouped in pairs or triple sections although there are several single windows. They are trimmed with flat topped architraves. A pent roof extends across the front forming a pediment. Small cross gables are located on the sides of the building. Asphalt shingles cover the roof.
