This house, located on the east side of Main Street (South Vermont Street) at Canal Street is a two story, two bay gable front frame building dating from the early 20th century. It has been covered with aluminum siding. Windows have modern single pane sashes. Entrances are located in both of the front bays at the first story. They may be original. There is a shed extension to the rear of the building. A two bay shed roofed entrance porch supported by chamfered posts covers the central area of the first story front. The house appears to be in good condition.
