Based upon information submitted to the Maryland Historical Trust, the house at 213 Newton Street in Salisbury, Wicomico County, Maryland, is not located in any current historic district, nor is it eligible for individual listing. The two story three bay dwelling is typical of late 19th century-early 20th century domestic in-town buildings in many cities throughout the country. This dwelling lacks the architectural distinction to be considered for individual listing.

Documentation on the property/district is presented in: MHT Review & Compliance Historic District Files
